

Working Together

Supporting Parents in Advocating for their Child

James Freeman, MA, CYC-P
November 30, 2017

What is an advocate?

ad "to" + vocare "to call"
[as used in vocal, voice, vocation, vocabulary]

From Latin advocatus, one called to aid another; a pleader (on one's behalf)

Also in Middle English as "one who intercedes for another," and
"protector, champion, patron."
Feminine forms advocatess, advocatrice were in use in 15c.; advocatrix is from 17c.

What is an advocate?

To empower someone by making their voice heard or speaking up for them

Youth, Trauma & Hope

Youth on the Edge

- Multiple disrupted living situations & relationships
- Significant trauma & loss
- Transitions to/ from more restrictive settings
- Multiple system traumas

Barrier Behaviors

Overwhelming behaviors create barriers to positive & lasting relationships:

- Distrust of adults
- Self-injury
- Running away
- Assault
- Property damage
- Suicide attempts
- Substance abuse

Created for Connection

“Human beings are social creatures. From the moment of our birth we are seeking connection with others. This is one of our strengths and the source of our greatest vulnerability.”

(Emond, Steckley & Roesch-Marsh, 2016, p. 61)

Adverse Childhood Experiences

- Landmark 1990s study & various replications
- Elevated childhood trauma as public health issue
- Exposed link between childhood trauma & lifelong health

Original 'ACEs'

Interpersonal trauma

- Emotional, physical & sexual abuse
- Emotional & physical neglect

Stress in the home

- Separated or divorced parents
- Violence toward mother
- Substance abuse
- Depression/mental illness/suicide attempt
- Incarceration

Death

Whole Life Perspective

Conception

The Problem with ACEs

- Lack of racial & cultural diversity
- Middle class & college educated
- Absence of community stressors

Philadelphia Expanded ACEs

Stress in the community

- Witnessing violence
- Living in foster care
- Bullying
- Experiencing racism or discrimination
- Feeling unsafe in neighborhood

Effect of Stress on the Brain

Neuroplasticity

The human brain is able to make lasting change throughout the lifespan

Epigenetics

“...the brain is literally sculpted by the environment... more so than any other organ in the body, and over much longer periods of time.” (Solms & Turnbull)

Youth, Trauma & Hope

For discussion

(1) How does an understanding of trauma and stress change the way you engage and interact with family members?

Rights-Based Advocacy

Child Rights

United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (1990)

- Updated Geneva Declaration of the Rights of the Child adopted by League of Nations (1924) & United Nations (1959)
- Most comprehensive & accepted human rights treaty in history
- Aims to protect children & strengthen families around the world

Child Rights

- Summarizes civil, political, economic, social & cultural rights
- Optional protocols
 - Restrict involvement of children in military conflict (2002)
 - Prohibit child prostitution & pornography (2002)
 - Provide process for filing complaints of violation of rights (2014)

Child Rights

- Ratified by every UN member country except USA
- Signed by US Secretary of State in 1995
- US Supreme Court recognizes as universal law
- US Presidents & Senate failed to ratify based on beliefs of national sovereignty

Child Rights

- US ranks one of the lowest in education outcomes & child poverty rates
- Only high-income country to not grant paid parental leave
- Only country that sentences offenders under the age of 18 to life in prison without parole

Four Themes of UNCRC

Survival

- Access to health care
- Sanitary water & nutrition
- Disease prevention & environmental health

Four Themes of UNCRC

Development

- Parental guidance & care
- Early learning & stimulation
- Education, leisure & cultural activities

Four Themes of UNCRC

Protection

- Protection from abuse, neglect, exploitation & discrimination
- Unlawful interference with privacy, family & home

Four Themes of UNCRC

Participation

- Access to information & involvement in decisions
- Freedom of expression & right to be heard

Four Themes of UNCRC

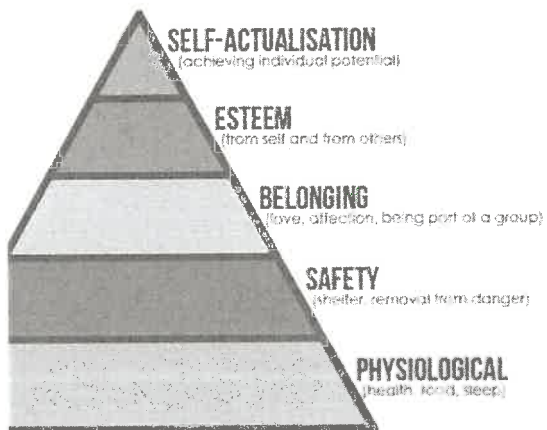

For discussion

(1) Share a current advocacy-related challenge among your group.

(2) How might you reframe or describe this challenge using one or more of the four UNCRC themes?

- Survival
- Development
- Protection
- Participation

Needs-Based Advocacy

SURVIVAL

Safety, warmth, nutrition, rest, relaxation, comfort

LOVE & BELONGING

Being close & connected, experiencing community, collaboration

POWER

Being heard, recognized & respected, achieving, accomplishing

FREEDOM

Making choices, being independent, freedom from/to, self expression

FUN

Enjoying the pleasures of life, recreation, learning, laughing, playing

Reimbursements

Experiential Opportunities that support development & personal agency

Relational Social connections with safety, trust & bonding

Eco-Cultural Connections with unique traditions & values

Regulatory Skills to manage emotions, make decisions & resolve problems

Biological Basic health & safety (e.g., shelter, nutrition, rest, recreation)

Academic Learning supports to fill gaps & positive learning environment

Baker, P. & White-McMahon. (2014). The Hopeful Brain: NeuroRelational Repair for Disconnected Children and Youth. Raleigh, NC: Lulu Publishing.

Generosity

Independence

Belonging

Mastery

Needs-Based Advocacy

What parents and family members need

Belonging
to be included in the process

Mastery
to be valued as an expert on their family

Independence
to be allowed to make mistakes & grow

Generosity
to share their story & what they learn

Needs-Based Advocacy

For discussion

- (1) Share some of the most common needs you find families experience challenges in meeting.
- (2) How might you help families you serve better understand and meet the needs of their child and other family members?
- (3) Make a list of practical strategies

Breaking Cycles of Conflict

Elements of Conflict Cycles

Preconditioning

- Self-Concept
- Worldview
- Values

Primary

- Stress
- Thoughts & Feelings
- Behavior
- Responses

Breaking Cycles of Conflict

Breaking Cycles of Conflict

For discussion

- (1) How might you teach the conflict cycle to parents? When is good timing? What language will you use?
- (2) What type of problems do you anticipate it might help with?

Reflection

Reflection & Journaling Exercise

Describe a specific example in which you advocated for a young person (or helped them advocate for their own rights).

What contributed to a successful outcome?

What did you learn from the experience?

Reflection

Things I learned, was reminded of, or were especially meaningful

Specific action steps I plan to implement

Mental Health Services Tips for Access

1

Outpatient Individual, Group and Family Therapy

2

Intensive outpatient or Partial Hospitalization

3

In home Intensive Services (Wraparound, TBS, Intensive In-home services)

4

Residential

5

Crisis
Stabilization Unit Psychiatric Hospital

